Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Regulations with the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation and other persons the Secretary of State considered appropriate.

In accordance with section 408(5) of the Education Act 1996 the Secretary of State has consulted on Part 1 of these Regulations (insofar as it relates to Part 3 of these Regulations), and Part 3 of these Regulations with those persons with whom consultation appeared to the Secretary of State to be desirable.

In accordance with section 96(2), (3) and (4) of the Education Act 2002(4), the Secretary of State gave notice of the proposal in Part 4 of these Regulations to the bodies and persons mentioned in those subsections and gave them a reasonable opportunity of submitting evidence and representations as to the issues arising.

In accordance with section 96(5) of the Education Act 2002, after consideration of any such evidence and representations, the Secretary of State published a draft of Part 1 of the proposed Regulations (insofar as it relates to Part 4 of the proposed Regulations) and Part 4 of the proposed Regulations and the associated documents, and a summary of the views expressed during the consultation.

In accordance with section 96(6) of the Education Act 2002, the Secretary of State allowed a period of at least one month beginning with the publication of the draft of Part 1 and Part 4 of the proposed Regulations for the submission of further evidence and representations as to the issues arising.

(4) Section 96 was substituted by section 26 of and paragraphs 11 and 15 of Schedule 8 to, the Education Act 2011.
