FINANCIAL SERVICES

The Financial Services Act 2021 (Prudential Regulation of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms) (Consequential Amendments and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2021

Made - - - - 7th December 2021
Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(2) and (3)

The Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 9I(2) and 9L(1) and (4)(a) of the Bank of England Act 1998(1), sections 22A, 144F(1) and 428(3) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(2), section 258A(2)(b) of the Banking Act 2009(3), section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018(4), and sections 3(1), (5) and (6) and 45(1) and (3) of the Financial Services Act 2021(5) make the following Regulations.

In accordance with section 3(4) of the Financial Services Act 2021, the Treasury consider that the provisions of the Capital Requirements Regulation(6) revoked by these Regulations have been adequately replaced by general rules made by the Prudential Regulation Authority.

In accordance with section 9L(2)(a) of the Bank of England Act 1998, the Treasury have consulted the Financial Policy Committee.

In the opinion of the Treasury, one of the effects of these Regulations is that an activity will become a PRA-regulated activity within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(7).

A draft of these Regulations has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, in accordance with section 9N(1) of the Bank of England Act 1998(8), sections 22B (3) (a) and 429(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(9), section 258A(3)(b) of the Banking Act 2009 and sections 3(7), 45(4) and 46(3) of the Financial Services Act 2021.

“Article 50b

General rules for the calculation of K_{CCP}

For the purpose of calculating K_{CCP} referred to in Article 50a(2), the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) CCPs shall calculate the value of the exposures they have to their clearing members as follows:
- (i) for exposures arising from contracts and transactions listed in points (a) or (c) of Article 301(1) of Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook, CCPs shall calculate the value in accordance with the method set out in Section 3 of Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook by using a margin period of risk of 10 business days;
 - (ii) for exposures arising from contracts and transactions listed in point (b) of Article 301(1) of Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook, CCPs shall calculate the value (EAD_i) in accordance with the following formula:

$$EAD_i = \max \{EBRM_i - IM_i - DF_i; 0\}$$

where:

EAD_i = the exposure value;

i = the index denoting the clearing member;

$EBRM_i$ = the exposure value before risk mitigation that is equal to the exposure value of the CCP to clearing member i arising from all the contracts and transactions with that clearing member, calculated without taking into account the collateral posted by that clearing member;

IM_i = the initial margin posted with the CCP by clearing member i ;

DF_i = the pre-funded default fund contribution of clearing member i .

All values in this formula shall relate to the valuation at the end of the day before the margin called on the final margin call of that day is exchanged;

- (iii) for situations referred to in the third sentence of the second subparagraph of Article 301(1) of Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook, CCPs shall calculate the value of the transactions referred to in the first sentence of that subparagraph in accordance with the formula set out in point (a)(ii) of this Article, and shall determine $EBRM_i$ in accordance with Title V of Part Three of the Capital Requirements Regulation;
- (b) for institutions that fall under the scope of the Capital Requirements Regulation the netting sets are the same as those defined in point (4) of Article 272 of that Regulation;
- (c) a CCP that has exposures to one or more CCPs shall treat those exposures as if they were exposures to clearing members and include any margin or pre-funded contributions received from those CCPs in the calculation of K_{CCP} ;
- (d) a CCP that has in place a binding contractual arrangement with its clearing members that allows that CCP to use all or part of the initial margin received from its clearing members as if they were pre-funded contributions shall consider that initial margin as pre-funded contributions for the purposes of the calculation in paragraph 1 and not as initial margin;
- (e) where collateral is held against an account containing more than one of the types of contracts and transactions referred to in Article 301(1) of Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook, CCPs shall allocate the initial margin provided by their clearing members or clients, as applicable, in proportion to the EADs of the respective types of contracts and transactions calculated in accordance with point (a) of this paragraph, without taking into account initial margin in the calculation;

Changes to legislation: The Financial Services Act 2021 (Prudential Regulation of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms) (Consequential Amendments and Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 2021 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) CCPs that have more than one default fund shall carry out the calculation for each default fund separately;
- (g) where a clearing member provides client clearing services, and the transactions and collateral of the clearing member's clients are held in sub-accounts which are separate from those of the clearing member's proprietary business, CCPs shall carry out the calculation of EAD_i for each sub-account separately and shall calculate the clearing member's total EAD_i as the sum of the EADs of the clients' sub-accounts and the EAD of the clearing member's proprietary business sub-account;
- (h) for the purposes of point (f), where DF_i is not split between the clients' sub-accounts and the clearing member's proprietary business sub-accounts, CCPs shall allocate DF_i per sub-account according to the respective fraction the initial margin of that sub-account has in relation to the total initial margin posted by the clearing member or for the account of the clearing member;
- (i) CCPs shall not carry out the calculation in accordance with Article 50a(2) where the default fund covers cash transactions only.

For the purposes of point (a)(ii) of this Article, the CCP shall use the method specified in Article 223 of the Capital Requirements Regulation with supervisory volatility adjustments set out in Article 224 of that Regulation to calculate the exposure value.”

- (7) In Article 50c (reporting of information), in paragraph 1—
 - (a) in the opening words, for “Regulation \(EU\) No 575/2013” substitute “Chapter 3 of the Counterparty Credit Risk (CRR) Part of the PRA Rulebook”;
 - (b) omit points (d) and (e).
- (8) In Article 50d (calculation of specific items to be reported by the CCP), omit point (c).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The primary purpose of this instrument is to make amendments to legislation that are consequential on changes made by sections 1 to 5 of, and Schedules 1 to 4 to, the Financial Services Act 2021 (c. 22) (the “Act”).

This instrument also revokes some provisions of Regulation (EU) 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms (known as the Capital Requirements Regulation or “CRR”) using section 3 of the Act. These provisions will be replaced by rules to be made by the Prudential Regulation Authority (“PRA”).

The rules made by the PRA to replace the provisions of the CRR revoked by this instrument can be found at <https://www.bankofengland.co.uk/prudential-regulation> and a copy can be obtained from the Prudential Regulation Authority, 20 Moorgate, London EC2R 6DA. Section 5(3) of the Act makes provision for certain references in the CRR to revoked provisions of the CRR to be read as references to corresponding rules made by the PRA (referred to in the Act as “CRR rules”). Under section 5(4) of the Act, the PRA has prepared a document setting out whether and how the proposed CRR rules correspond to the provisions of the CRR revoked by this instrument. This document is published at <https://www.bankofengland.co.uk/prudential-regulation> and a copy can be obtained from the Prudential Regulation Authority, 20 Moorgate, London EC2R 6DA.

HM Treasury are also exercising powers in the Bank of England Act 1998 (c. 11), the Banking Act 2009 (c. 1) and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) (“FSMA”) in order to update related elements of the prudential regimes for credit institutions and investment firms.

Provisions contained in regulations 12, 17, 24, 26, 28 and 31 of this instrument are made in exercise of the powers in section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively, and other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union (and in particular, the deficiencies under paragraphs (a) and (g) of section 8(2) of that Act).

Part 2 of this instrument makes amendments to primary legislation and Northern Ireland legislation.

Part 3 of this instrument makes amendments to secondary legislation. In particular, regulation 15 amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (PRA-regulated Activities) Order 2013 (S.I. 2013/556). That Order specifies, for the purposes of FSMA, which regulated activities are “PRA-regulated activities”.

Part 4 of this instrument makes amendments to retained EU law.

Part 5 of this instrument makes amendments to the Capital Requirements Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020.

Part 6 of this instrument makes amendments to the Capital Requirements Regulation (Amendment) Regulations 2021 (S.I. 2021/1078).

Part 7 of this instrument exercises a power to remove certain investment firms from the definition of “investment firm” in the Banking Act 2009 (c. 1).

Part 8 of this instrument makes savings provision in respect of powers in Article 124(4) of the CRR to make, revoke and amend technical standards, and transitional provision in respect of Regulation (EU) 2017/2402 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2017 laying down
