6.—(1) Part 8 (contributions in respect of pre-commencement service) and Part 9 (contributions in respect of service on or after commencement day) of the FPJPS Regulations do not apply in respect of a new member before 1st April 2021, without prejudice to Part 9's continued application to a new member on and after 1st April 2021.

(2) A new member must pay to the appropriate Minister the previous service contributions amount, being the sum of—

- (a) the previous service personal contributions amount, and
- (b) the previous service dependants' contributions amount.

(3) Paragraph (2) is subject to paragraphs (4) and (5).

- (c) did not have a qualifying child at any time during that period.

Calculation of personal contributions in respect of service before 1st April 2021

7. Subject to regulation 9 (qualifying fee-paid days disregarded if they do not add to reckonable service), the previous service personal contributions amount in relation to a new member is determined as follows—

Step 1

For each fee period, find the total of the fees paid to the new member in respect of qualifying fee-paid days falling within the period.

Step 2

For each fee period from 7th April 2000 to 31st March 2015, multiply the total found under Step 1 for that fee period by the percentage specified in relation to that fee period in column 2 of the contributions table in paragraph 1 of the Schedule (contributions tables).

For each fee period from 1st April 2015 to 31st March 2021, multiply the total found under Step 1 for that fee period by the percentage specified in column 2 of the relevant contributions table in paragraphs 2 to 6 of the Schedule for that fee period, in the row corresponding to the new member's annualised fees for that fee period.

Step 3

Add together the amounts found under Step 2.

Calculation of dependants' contributions in respect of service before 1st April 2021

8. Subject to regulation 9, the previous service dependants' contributions amount in relation to a new member is determined as follows—

Step 1

For each fee period, find the total of the fees paid to the new member in respect of qualifying fee-paid days falling within the period.

Step 2

For each fee period from 7th April 2000 to 31st March 2015, multiply the total found under Step 1 for that fee period by the percentage specified in relation to that fee period in column 3 of the contributions table in paragraph 1 of the Schedule.

For each fee period from 1st April 2015 to 31st March 2021, multiply the total found under Step 1 for that fee period by the percentage specified in column 3 of the relevant contributions table in paragraphs 2 to 6 of the Schedule for that fee period, in the row corresponding to the new member's annualised fees for that fee period.

Step 3

Add together the amounts found under Step 2.

Qualifying fee-paid days disregarded if they do not add to reckonable service

9.—(1) A qualifying fee-paid day worked in an eligible fee-paid judicial office is disregarded for the purposes of regulations 7 and 8 if a new member's reckonable service in relation to that office would have been equal to or greater than the maximum amount in relation to that office, had they retired on the day before that day.

(2) The reference in paragraph (1) to the maximum amount in relation to an office is to that amount as determined in accordance with regulation 5(4) (maximum amount) of the FPJPS Regulations.

Payment of contributions in respect of service before 1st April 2021

10.—(1) The previous service contributions amount, or any part of it, may be paid—

- (a) by way of a lump sum at any time during the period of 6 months beginning with 1st April 2021;
- (b) by way of such deductions from fees paid to a new member in respect of fee-paid days as may be specified in an agreement between a new member and the appropriate Minister, and for the purposes of sub-paragraph (b), a “fee-paid day” means a day in respect of which a new member receives a fee in their capacity as a holder of an eligible fee-paid judicial office.

(2) The deductions specified under paragraph (1)(b)—

- (a) must be of fixed monetary amounts, and
- (b) must be the same for each fee.

(3) A new agreement under paragraph (1)(b) may be entered into at any time after the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the previous agreement was entered into.

(4) Except to the extent that the previous service contributions amount has already been paid under paragraph (1), it is to be paid by way of a deduction from—

- (a) the lump sum payable to a new member under Part 3 (retirement benefits) of the FPJPS Regulations, or
- (b) where a new member dies before retiring, the lump sum payable in respect of a new member under Part 6 of the FPJPS Regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 2 of these Regulations corrects errors in the Judicial Pensions (Fee-Paid Judges) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/522) (the “2017 Regulations”) which created a pension scheme for fee-paid judges, by adding further judicial offices to the Schedule to the 2017 Regulations and making minor amendments. The limitation dates, where relevant, clarify the periods of service for which part-time judges holding these offices are eligible to receive a pension under the 2017 Regulations. The offices of Deputy Master of the Senior Courts and Deputy Insolvency and Companies Court Judge are included as these are the updated titles of offices already included in the scheme.

Part 3 of these Regulations makes provision about the scheme’s application to a holder of a new judicial office added to the 2017 Regulations by Part 2, in respect of relevant judicial service in those offices from 7th April 2000 until 31st March 2021, prior to admission to the scheme. The 2017 Regulations are modified so they can apply to these new members of the scheme for that period. In particular, provision is made about member pension contributions which would have been due in relation to pension benefits accruable before admission to the scheme, setting out how the amount of the contributions is to be calculated and how this is to be paid by the new member. The relevant contributions rates are set out in the Schedule to these Regulations.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
