4. An entity receiving information in accordance with paragraph 3 must ensure that the information received is only used for the purposes stated in the request in accordance with paragraph 3 and is not made available deliberately or accidentally to persons not involved in the intended purpose of the information use. This provision does not preclude these entities from making the information available to other entities listed in paragraph 2, if this is necessary for the purposes stated in the request made in accordance with paragraph 3.

5. Upon their request, the national administrator may provide access to transaction information which does not allow the direct identification of specific persons to the entities referred to in paragraph 2 for the purpose of looking for suspicious transaction patterns. Entities with such access may notify suspicious transaction patterns to other entities listed in paragraph 2.

6. The national administrator may decide to notify to law enforcement and tax authorities all transactions that involve a number of units above the number determined by the national administrator and to notify any account that is involved in a number of transactions within a period that is above a number determined by the national administrator.

7. The national administrator may not require account holders to submit price information concerning Kyoto units.

8. In this Article, “a market manipulation offence” means an offence under Part 7 of the Financial Services Act 2012(17).”.

“Article 110a

Provision of information

1. For the purpose mentioned in paragraph 4, the national administrator or the Secretary of State (a “relevant body”) may, by notice, require a person (“P”) to furnish the relevant body with such information as is specified in the notice.

2. A notice under this paragraph must specify—

- (a) the form in which information is to be provided;
- (b) the period within which, or time at which, the information must be provided.

3. The information which P may be required to furnish by a notice under paragraph 1 includes information, which, although it is not in P’s possession or would not otherwise come into P’s possession, is information which it is reasonable to require P to compile for the purpose of complying with the notice.

4. The purpose referred to in paragraph 1 is the performance of the relevant body’s functions.

5. A relevant body must not disclose or publish any information it has received under paragraph 1 except where—

- (a) disclosure or publication is—
 - (i) required by this Regulation or otherwise by law;
 - (ii) necessary for the performance of the relevant body’s functions; or
 - (iii) made with the consent of the person by or on behalf of whom the information was provided; or
- (b) disclosure is between the relevant bodies.

6. The Secretary of State may use any information held or obtained for the purposes of this Regulation, and may share such information with other government bodies, for the purpose of preparing and publishing national energy and emissions statistics, including the preparation and publication of a national inventory.

7. In this Article—

- (a) “national inventory” means the estimation, under Article 4(1)(a) of the UNFCCC, of anthropogenic emissions of greenhouse gases by sources and removals of all greenhouse gases by sinks not controlled by the Montreal Protocol;
- (b) “functions” means functions—
 - (i) under this Regulation; or
 - (ii) related to compliance with relevant international climate law.

Article 110b

Right of appeal regarding Article 110a notices

1. Subject to paragraph 2, a person who is aggrieved by a notice served on them under Article 110a(1) may appeal against the notice to the First-tier Tribunal.

2. An appeal under paragraph 1 may not be made to the extent that the notice implements a direction given by—

- (a) the Secretary of State under section 40 of the Environment Act 1995⁽¹⁸⁾;
- (b) the First-tier Tribunal under this Regulation.

3. The bringing of an appeal under paragraph 1 suspends the effect of the notice pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal.

4. Subject to paragraph 5, in determining an appeal under paragraph 1, the First-tier Tribunal may—

- (a) affirm the notice;
- (b) quash the notice; or
- (c) vary any of the terms of the notice.

5. The First-tier Tribunal may not make a determination that would result in a notice which could not otherwise have been made under this Regulation.

⁽¹⁸⁾ 1995 c. 25. Section 40 was amended for Wales by the Natural Resources Body for Wales (Functions) Order 2013/755 (W.90), Schedule 2, paragraph 371; for Scotland by the Regulatory Reform (Scotland) Act 2014 asp 3, Schedule 3, paragraph 43(6); and for England, Scotland and Wales by S.I. 2019/458, regulation 3(2).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers in section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under section 8(2)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (g)) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union).

These Regulations make amendments to legislation in the field of international climate change commitments. Part 2 amends the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Trading Scheme (Amendment) and National Emissions Inventory Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/2903), which relate to projects for reducing greenhouse gas emissions in accordance with the Kyoto Protocol to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change. Part 3 amends Commission Regulation (EU) No 389/2013, which relates to maintaining a registry for the purposes of greenhouse gas emissions obligations under the Kyoto Protocol to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change. Part 4 makes consequential amendments.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
