

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE SEXUAL OFFENCES ACT 2003 (PRESCRIBED POLICE STATIONS)
(ENGLAND AND WALES) (AMENDMENT) REGULATIONS 2021

2021 No. 70

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Home Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 To amend the list of police stations prescribed in England and Wales at which notification requirements imposed on sex offenders can be discharged.

3. Matters of special interest to Parliament

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

- 3.1 None.

Matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business (English Votes for English Laws)

- 3.2 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure there are no matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business at this stage.

4. Extent and Territorial Application

- 4.1 The territorial extent of this instrument is England and Wales.
4.2 The territorial application of this instrument is England and Wales.

5. European Convention on Human Rights

- 5.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 Part 2 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (“the 2003 Act”) imposes notification requirements on persons convicted of offences specified in Schedule 3 to that Act and on certain other categories of person. Section 87(1) of the 2003 Act provides that notification is given by attending at a prescribed police station in a person’s local police area. The Schedule to the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (Prescribed Police Stations) (England and Wales) Regulations 2018 (S.I. 2018/447) (“the 2018 Regulations”) contains the list of police stations currently prescribed.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 The 2003 Act imposes notification requirements on “relevant offenders” (principally people who are convicted or cautioned for sexual offences listed in Schedule 3 to the 2003 Act). This is commonly referred to as the “Sex Offenders’ Register”.
- 7.2 Whilst they are subject to the notification requirements, registered sex offenders must notify certain details to the police. Section 83(5) of the 2003 Act lists these details, which include name, address, date of birth and national insurance number.
- 7.3 Section 87(1) of the 2003 Act requires notification to be given by attending a police station in a sex offender’s local area which is prescribed in regulations, and by giving an oral notification to a police officer or person authorised for the purpose by the officer in charge of the station.
- 7.4 These Regulations are necessary to update the 2018 Regulations: some police stations have closed, and others need to be added as newly prescribed stations. The ability to update the list of prescribed police stations allows the numbers of sex offenders notifying to a police station to be managed, ensures a reasonable geographic spread and avoids sex offenders attending premises which are no longer a police station in order to notify.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 This is the second amending instrument to the consolidated instrument made in 2018.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 Consultation has taken place with the National Policing Lead for the Management of Sexual Offenders and Violent Offenders in drafting the revisions to the list of police stations.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 No guidance is given on this instrument.

12. Impact

- 12.1 There is no, or no significant, impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector.
- 12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument because SI relates to maintenance of existing regulatory standards.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 The approach to monitoring of this legislation is to review and update the 2018 Regulations, as amended, as and when necessary in consultation with the police. There will be no specific review of these amending Regulations.
- 14.2 The regulation does not include a statutory review clause.

15. Contact
