1. In this Schedule, references to an authorised officer are to an authorised officer of the enforcement authority⁽¹⁾.

Civil sanctions

2.—(1) An authorised officer may by notice impose a fixed monetary penalty on a person in relation to an offence under regulation 9(2).

(2) Before doing so, the officer must be satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person has committed the offence.

(3) In this Schedule, “fixed monetary penalty” means a penalty of £2,500.

Notice of intent

3.—(1) When an authorised officer proposes to impose a fixed monetary penalty on a person, the officer must serve on that person a notice of what is proposed (“a notice of intent”).

(2) The notice of intent must include—

- (a) the grounds for the proposal to impose the fixed monetary penalty;
- (b) the amount of the penalty;
- (c) a statement that liability for the penalty can be discharged by paying 50% of the penalty within 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice was received; and
- (d) information as to—
 - (i) the effect of that discharge payment,
 - (ii) the right to make representations and objections within 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice of intent was received, and
 - (iii) the circumstances in which an authorised officer may not impose the fixed monetary penalty (including any defences relating to the offence in relation to which the notice is served).

Discharge of liability

4. Liability for the penalty is discharged if a person who receives a notice of intent pays 50% of the amount of the penalty within 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice was received.

Making representations and objections

5. A person on whom a notice of intent is served may within 28 days beginning with the day on which the notice was received make written representations and objections to the enforcement authority in relation to the proposed imposition of the fixed monetary penalty.

(2) The authorised officer may not serve a final notice on a person where the authorised officer is satisfied that the person would not, by reason of any defence, be liable to be convicted of the offence to which the notice relates.

(3) An authorised officer who serves a final notice imposing a fixed monetary penalty may not serve any other notice under these Regulations in relation to the offence.
