NOTES

1. The attention of candidates and election agents is drawn to the rules for filling up nomination papers and other provisions relating to nomination and deposits contained in the Mayoral Election Rules ("MER").
2. Where a candidate is commonly known by some title they may be described by their title as if it were part of their surname.
3. Where a candidate commonly uses a name or names:
 - a) that are different from the candidate's full names as stated on the nomination paper, or
 - b) in a different way from the candidate's full names as stated on the nomination paper, the commonly used name or names may also appear on the nomination paper; but if they do so, the commonly used name or names (instead of any other names) will appear on the ballot paper.
4. The statement of persons nominated and the ballot paper will solely show the other name if the GLRO thinks that:
 - a) the use of the commonly used name may be likely to mislead or confuse electors, or
 - b) the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.
5. A person's electoral number is their number in the register to be used at the election, including the distinctive letter of the parliamentary polling district in which they are registered.
6. An elector may not subscribe more than one nomination paper for the same Mayor of London election unless the original subscription relates to a candidate who has since withdrawn or has since died.
7. In this form "elector" –
 - a) means a person whose name is registered in the register of local government electors for the electoral area in question on the last day for the publication of notice of election; and
 - b) includes a person then shown in the register as below voting age if (but only if) it appears from the register that he will be of voting age on the day fixed for the poll.
8. However, a person who has an anonymous entry in the register for local government electors cannot nominate a candidate for election.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Local Government and Greater London Authority Elections (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2023, Schedule 5. (See end of Document for details)
