EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/480) (“the Means Regulations”) and the Civil Legal Aid (Remuneration) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/422) (“the Remuneration Regulations”).

Regulation 5(1) of the Means Regulations sets out a list of certain descriptions of civil legal services that are to be provided without a determination in respect of an individual’s financial resources. Regulation 2 adds a new sub-paragraph to this list such that no determination in relation to the financial resources of an individual will be made where the services applied for by that individual are described in paragraph 31C of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (“LASPO”).

This means that any individual in receipt of a removal notice under the Illegal Migration Act 2023 will be entitled to legal aid in relation to that removal notice without their financial circumstances being assessed. Civil legal services described only within other paragraphs of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to LASPO (in particular paragraph 19 - judicial review) to which the individual may be entitled to will still be subject to any relevant tests within the Means Regulations.

Regulation 3 amends the Remuneration Regulations, which make provision about payment by the Lord Chancellor to providers of civil legal services under arrangements made for the purposes of Part 1 of the Act.

Regulation 3 adds new hourly rates to remunerate legal aid providers and barristers in independent practice for conducting work described in paragraph 31C of Part 1 of Schedule to LASPO. This work is brought into scope of legal aid by an amendment to LASPO made by the Illegal Migration Act 2023.

All amendments made by these Regulations are to come into force on the same date that, and immediately after the relevant section of, the Illegal Migration Act 2023 is commenced.

An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector has been published as part of the Government Response to the consultation on fees in relation to the Illegal Migration Act and is available from the Legal Aid Policy Team, Access to Justice Directorate, Ministry of Justice, 102 Petty France, London, SW1H 9AJ.
