

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2023 No. 1324

The Family Procedure (Amendment No. 2) Rules 2023

- 13. In rule 3.9 (conduct of MIAMs), in paragraph (2)—
- (a) for sub-paragraph (b) substitute—
    - “(b) consider and explain the potential benefits of mediation and other methods of non-court dispute resolution as a means of resolving the dispute;”;
  - (b) in sub-paragraph (c) for “violence; and” substitute “abuse;”;
  - (c) in sub-paragraph (d) for “application.” substitute “application;”; and
  - (d) after sub-paragraph (d) insert—
    - “(e) indicate to those attending the MIAM which form, or forms, of non-court dispute resolution may be most suitable as a means of resolving the dispute, and why; and
    - (f) where sub-paragraph (e) applies, provide information to those attending the MIAM about how to proceed with the form, or forms, of non-court dispute resolution in question.”.