(3) These Regulations extend to England and Wales.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations, “the register operator” means the person required under regulation 3(2) of the Biodiversity Gain Site Register Regulations 2024 to maintain the biodiversity gain site register established under those Regulations.

PART 2

Financial penalties

Applications under the Biodiversity Gain Site Register Regulations 2024: penalty for supply of false or misleading information

3. The register operator may impose a financial penalty of £5000 on a person in accordance with this Part where the register operator is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that false or misleading information has been or was supplied to it by that person in connection with an application referred to in regulation 7(1) of the Biodiversity Gain Site Register Regulations 2024 (applications to register land in the biodiversity gain site register) made by that person.

Notice of intent to be given before imposing penalty

4.—(1) Before imposing a financial penalty on a person under this Part, the register operator must give that person notice of its intention to do so (a “notice of intent”).

(2) A notice of intent given to a person must—

(a) inform the person that the register operator is satisfied as specified in regulation 3;

(1) S.I. 2024/45.

- (b) specify the information which the register operator is satisfied was false or misleading;
- (c) identify the application in connection with which that information has been or was supplied;
- (d) inform the person that the register operator intends to impose a financial penalty of £5000 on the person under this Part;
- (e) give details of the person's right under regulation 5 to object to the imposition of the penalty.

Right to object to proposed financial penalty

5.—(1) A person to whom a notice of intent is given under regulation 4 may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice is given, object to the imposition of the penalty to which the notice relates on the grounds that—

- (a) the information specified under regulation 4(2)(b) in the notice of intent was not false or misleading, or
 - (b) there are other compelling reasons why the penalty should not be imposed.
- (2) An objection under this regulation must—
- (a) be made in writing to the register operator, and
 - (b) include any evidence which supports the objection.

Final decision to impose financial penalty

6.—(1) Where the register operator has given a notice of intent to a person under regulation 4, the register operator may impose a financial penalty on that person if it decides to do so within—

- (a) the period of 56 days beginning with the day on which the register operator receives an objection made in accordance with regulation 5, or
- (b) if no such objection is received, the period of 56 days beginning with the day after the day on which the period mentioned in regulation 5(1) ended.

(2) A financial penalty is imposed on a person under this Part by giving notice to that person informing that person of the register operator's decision to impose the penalty and requiring the penalty to be paid (a "final penalty notice").

(3) A final penalty notice must require the penalty to be paid within the period of 28 days beginning with the day after the day on which the final penalty notice was given.

- (4) A final penalty notice must—
- (a) state that the amount of the penalty is £5000;
 - (b) state the reasons for the imposition of the penalty;

Right of appeal against final penalty notice

8.—(1) A person on whom a financial penalty is imposed under regulation 6 may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the register operator’s decision to impose the penalty.

(2) If a person appeals under this regulation, the final penalty notice is suspended until the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

(3) An appeal under this regulation—

(a) is to be a re-hearing of the register operator’s decision, but

(b) may be determined having regard to matters of which the register operator was unaware.

(4) On an appeal under this regulation, the First-tier Tribunal may either quash or confirm the final penalty notice.

Penalty recoverable as a debt

9. A financial penalty imposed under this Part is recoverable as a civil debt due to the register operator.

Proceeds to be paid into the Consolidated Fund

10. The register operator must pay the proceeds of a financial penalty imposed under this Part into the Consolidated Fund.
