SCHEDULE

Regulation 3(3)

[ (A)] COMPULSORY PURCHASE ORDER

CONSENT TO THE WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS PROCEDURE

(under the Compulsory Purchase of Land (Written Representations Procedure) (National Assembly for Wales) Regulations 2004)

The National Assembly for Wales ("the National Assembly") acknowledges receipt of your objection to the [confirmation] making of the above Order. It is considering whether objections should be dealt with by a written representations procedure.

The National Assembly accepts that you are a remaining objector for the purposes of [section 13A of]paragraph 4A of Schedule 1 to the Acquisition of Land Act 1981. This means that you have a right to have your representations objecting to the [confirmation] making of the Order heard at an inquiry.

Such a right means that you, or your representative, has the right at such an inquiry to-

- explain orally why you object to the [confirmation] making of the Order;
- cross-examine any witness called by the acquiring authority; and
- give oral evidence yourself and to call any witnesses in support of your objection.

The National Assembly may only permit objections to the [confirmation] making of the Order being dealt with by the written representations procedure if you, and all the other remaining objectors, consent to this.

The written representations procedure is set out in The Compulsory Purchase of Land (Written Representations Procedure) (National Assembly for Wales) Regulations 2004. A summary of the procedure is set out in the Annex to this notice.

If you consent to the use of the written representations procedure, please complete the statement at the end of this notice to indicate that you do. Please sign and date in the spaces given and return it to [ (c)] by [ (d)].

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

If you do not do so, the National Assembly will be entitled to proceed on the basis that you do not consent to the written representations procedure and a public inquiry (or other hearing) will be held.

If you do consent, and the National Assembly decides that it is appropriate to use the written representations procedure, it will not be possible for you to withdraw your consent and be heard orally at an inquiry or hearing unless the National Assembly determines that there are extenuating circumstances to justify the holding of an inquiry or hearing. If you consent, but it is nonetheless decided to hold an inquiry or hearing, you will still have a right to attend and take part at the inquiry or hearing.

You may wish to seek legal or other advice before consenting. The National Assembly is not able to give you any advice as to whether or not you should consent.

If you do not consent, arrangements will be made for the holding of an inquiry or hearing, at which you will have the opportunity to make representations. The procedure at an inquiry is set out in the [Compulsory Purchase by Non-Ministerial Acquiring Authorities (Inquiries Procedure) Rules 1990 (S.I. 1990/512)] Compulsory Purchase by Ministers (Inquiries Procedure) Rules 1994 (S.I. 1994/3264).

I, [ ], have read the above which I understand. I consent/do not consent to the use of the written representations procedure instead of an inquiry being held.

ANNEX

Summary of the written representations procedure

(1) If the National Assembly decides that the use of the written representations procedure is appropriate, it will send a consent form to all remaining objectors to seek their consent to the use of the procedure. The National Assembly can only decide whether to use the written representations procedure if all remaining objectors consent. If the procedure is to be used, the National Assembly will set a starting date for the commencement of the procedure and will indicate what existing documents are to be taken into account in addition to the subsequent representations.

(2) If the acquiring authority wishes to make representations, it must do so not later than 14 working days after the starting date (such representations may be disregarded if received more than 14 working days after the starting date) and must copy the representations to each remaining objector.

(3) Each remaining objector has a right then to provide representations in response, which may be disregarded if received more than 15 working days after the National Assembly sends a copy of the acquiring authority's representations to the objector under paragraph (2) above.

(4) The acquiring authority may then provide representations in response, which may be disregarded if received more than 10 working days after the National Assembly sends a copy of the remaining objectors' representations to the authority under paragraph (3) above.

(5) The National Assembly has a discretion to extend these time limits, where appropriate.

(6) Oral representations are not permitted, but written representations by third parties may be permitted by the National Assembly.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the written representations procedure (the “procedure”) that may be used for deciding whether to authorise the compulsory purchase of land in Wales where the National Assembly for Wales (“the National Assembly”) is the acquiring or confirming authority and the procedures in the Acquisition of Land Act 1981 (“the Act”) apply.

Objections to the confirmation of a compulsory purchase order made under Part II of the Act (as defined in section 13A(1) of the Act) which have not been withdrawn and which may not be disregarded (“remaining objections”) can be determined by a procedure prescribed by regulations (section 13A of the Act). This is an alternative to the holding of an inquiry, provided all those having remaining objections consent in the prescribed manner.

Similarly, remaining objections to the making of a compulsory purchase order under Schedule 1 to the Act (as defined in paragraph 4A(1) of Schedule 1 to the Act) can be determined by such a procedure (paragraph 4A of Schedule 1 to the Act).

The main steps in the procedure include—

- (a) if the National Assembly is considering the use of the procedure, it will send a consent form (in the form set out in the Schedule to these Regulations) to all those with remaining objections, seeking their written consent to the use of the procedure (regulation 3);
- (b) only if all such objectors consent may the National Assembly use the procedure. It is not obliged to use the procedure, but, if it determines that the procedure should apply, it will set a starting date from which the procedure will commence (regulation 4);
- (c) any documents served by the acquiring authority on the remaining objectors at the time of the making or preparation in draft of a compulsory purchase order, and any letters and other documents provided to the National Assembly as objections to confirmation or making, will form part of the representations to be considered (regulation 5(1) and (2));
- (d) unless the acquiring authority elects not to do so, it may make representations in support of its application (which may be disregarded if received more than 14 working days after the starting date). Such representations will be copied to each remaining objector (regulation 5(4) and (5));
- (e) any remaining objector may make representations in response (which may be disregarded if received more than 15 working days after the National Assembly sends a copy of the acquiring authority’s representations under paragraph (d) above) (regulation 5(6) and (7));
- (f) in response to a remaining objector’s representations mentioned in paragraph (e) above, the acquiring authority may make further representations (which may be disregarded if received more than 10 working days after the National Assembly or, if different, the acquiring authority sends a copy of the remaining objectors’ representations) (regulation 5(8) and (9));
- (g) the National Assembly may permit representations to be made by any other person (which may be disregarded if received more than 14 working days after the starting date set for the acquiring authority to provide its representations) (regulation 6);
- (h) the National Assembly has a discretion to extend the time limits in any particular case (regulation 7);

- (i) the National Assembly may appoint an inspector to consider the representations, to undertake a site inspection (if appropriate) and to report in writing to the National Assembly with a recommendation (regulation 8);
- (j) the inspector may at any time make a site inspection of the land which is the subject of the compulsory purchase order and of the surrounding area. The inspector may make the inspection unaccompanied (without giving prior notice to the acquiring authority and the remaining objectors) or in the company of a representative of the acquiring authority and the remaining objectors (regulation 9(1)). Notification of the date and time of an accompanied inspection must be sent to the acquiring authority, and the remaining objectors, by the National Assembly so as to be received not less than 5 working days before the inspection (regulation 9(2)). The inspector is not required to defer an accompanied inspection where the acquiring authority or a remaining objector is not present (regulation 9(3));
- (k) if, not later than 10 working days after the starting date, the acquiring authority or a remaining objector makes to the National Assembly a request for an accompanied site inspection, such an inspection must be arranged by the National Assembly (regulation 9(4));
- (l) the National Assembly will determine the confirmation or making of the compulsory purchase order on the basis of the written representations and any report of the inspector (regulation 10); and
- (m) the National Assembly will (unless it is the acquiring authority) notify the acquiring authority, and those permitted to make representations in respect of their objections, of the decision and the reasons for the decision. Any such person may apply for a copy of any report or representation taken into account; such report or representations then to be sent not later than 10 working days after receipt of the request (regulation 11).
