PART 2

Calculation of contribution

Household income

- 2.—(1) The amount of a student's contribution depends on the household income.
- (2) The household income is—
- (a) in the case of a student who is not an independent eligible student, the residual income of the student aggregated with the residual income of the student's parents (subject to paragraph 4(9)) and the residual income of the partner of the student's parent (provided that the Welsh Ministers have selected that parent under paragraph 4(9));
 - (b) in the case of an independent eligible student who has a partner the residual income of the student aggregated with the residual income of that student's partner; or
 - (c) in the case of an independent eligible student who does not have a partner the residual income of that student.
- (3) In determining the household income under sub-paragraph (2), the sum of £1,130 is deducted—
- (a) for each child wholly or mainly financially dependent on the student or the student's partner; or
 - (b) for each child other than the student wholly or mainly financially dependent on the student's parent or the student's parent's partner whose residual income is being taken into account.

Calculation of the student's residual income

- 3.—(1) For the purpose of determining the residual income of a student, there is deducted from the student's taxable income (unless already deducted in determining taxable income) the aggregate of any amounts falling within any of the following paragraphs—
- (a) any remuneration for work done during any academic year of the student's course, other than any sums paid in respect of any period for which the student has leave of absence or is relieved of the student's normal duties for the purpose of attending that course;
 - (b) the gross amount of any premium or other sum paid by the student in relation to a pension (not being a pension payable under a policy of life assurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004⁽²⁶⁾, or where the student's income is computed for the purpose of the income tax legislation of another Member State, the gross amount of any such premium or sum in respect of which relief would be given if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts.
- (2) Where the student receives income in a currency other than sterling, the value of that income for the purpose of this paragraph is—
- (a) if the student purchases sterling with the income, the amount of sterling the student so receives; or
 - (b) otherwise, the value of the sterling the income would purchase using the rate for the month in which it is received published by the Office for National Statistics⁽²⁷⁾.

Calculation of parent's residual income

4.—(1) For the purposes of determining the taxable income of a student's parent, any deductions which fall to be made or exemptions which are permitted—

- (a) by way of personal reliefs provided for in Chapter 1 of Part VII of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988⁽²⁸⁾, or where the income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, the gross amount of any such premium in respect of which relief would be given if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;
- (b) pursuant to any enactment or rule of law under which payments which would otherwise under United Kingdom law form part of a person's income are not treated as such; or
- (c) under sub-paragraph (2),

must not be made.

(2) For the purpose of determining the residual income of a student's parent, there is to be deducted from the taxable income determined under sub-paragraph (1) the aggregate of any amounts falling within any of the following paragraphs—

- (a) the gross amount of any premium or other sum paid by the student in relation to a pension (not being a pension payable under a policy of life assurance) in respect of which relief is given under section 273⁽²⁹⁾ of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 or under section 188 of the Finance Act 2004⁽³⁰⁾, or where the student's income is computed for the purpose of the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, the gross amount of any such premium or sum in respect of which relief would be given if that legislation made provision equivalent to the Income Tax Acts;
- (b) in any case where income is computed in accordance with sub-paragraph (6) any sums equivalent to the deduction mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph, provided that any sums so deducted are not to exceed the deductions which would be made if the whole of the student's parent's income were in fact income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts; and
- (c) in the case of a student's parent who holds a statutory award, £1,130.

(3) Where the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that the income of the parent in the tax year which ended immediately before the relevant date ("preceding tax year") is, as a result of some event beyond the parent's control, likely to be not more than 85 per cent, of the sterling value of that person's income in the prior financial year, the Welsh Ministers may, for the purpose of enabling the student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain the household income for the preceding tax year.

(4) Where the Welsh Ministers are satisfied that the income of the parent in any tax year is, as a result of some event beyond the parent's control, likely to be and to continue after that year to be not more than 85 per cent of the sterling value of that parent's income in the previous tax year the Welsh Ministers may, for the purpose of enabling the student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain the household income for the academic year of the student's course by taking as the residual income of the parent the average of that person's residual income for each of the tax years in which that academic year falls.

(5) Where the student's parent satisfies the Welsh Ministers that their income is wholly or mainly derived from the profits of a business or profession carried on by them, then any reference in this paragraph to a tax year is to be read as a reference to the earliest period of twelve months which ends after the start of the prior financial year and in respect of which accounts are kept relating to that business or profession.

⁽²⁸⁾ 1988 c. 1. Chapter 1 of Part VII has been amended by the Finance Act 2009 (c. 10) with effect for the tax year 2010-11.

⁽²⁹⁾ Section 273 is repealed by the Finance Act 2009, section 5 and Schedule 1, with effect for the tax year 2010-11 and subsequent tax years.

⁽³⁰⁾ 2004 c. 12; section 188 was amended by the Finance Act 2007 (c. 11), sections 68, 69, 114 and Schedules 18, 19 and 27.

(6) Where a student's parent is in receipt of any income which does not form part of that parent's income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts or the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland by reason only that—

- (a) the parent is not resident, ordinarily resident or domiciled in the United Kingdom, or where the parent's income is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, not so resident, ordinarily resident or domiciled in that EEA State or Switzerland;
- (b) the income does not arise in the United Kingdom, or where the parent's income is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, does not arise in that EEA State or Switzerland; or
- (c) the income arises from an office, service or employment, income from which is exempt from tax in pursuance of any legislation, the parent's taxable income for the purpose of this Schedule is to be computed as though the income under this sub-paragraph were part of that person's income for the purpose of the Income Tax Acts or the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, as the case may be.

(7) Where the income of the student's parent is computed as for the purposes of the income tax legislation of another EEA State or Switzerland, it is to be computed under the provisions of this Schedule in the currency of that EEA State or Switzerland and the income of the student's parent for the purposes of this Schedule is the sterling value of that income determined in accordance with the rate for the month in which the last day of the financial year in question falls, as published by the Office for National Statistics.

(8) Where one of the student's parents dies and that parent's income has been or would be taken into account for the purpose of determining the household income, the household income is—

- (a) where the parent dies before the relevant tax year, determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent; or
- (b) where the parent dies during the relevant tax year, the aggregate of—
 - (i) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of both parents, being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant tax year during which both parents were alive; and
 - (ii) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined by reference to the income of the surviving parent, being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant tax year remaining after the death of the other parent.

(9) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the parents were separated for the duration of the relevant tax year, the household income is determined by reference to the income of whichever parent the Welsh Ministers consider most appropriate under the circumstances.

(10) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the parents separated in the course of the relevant tax year, the household income is determined by reference to the aggregate of—

- (a) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined in accordance with sub-paragraph (9), being the proportion in respect of that part of the relevant tax year for which the parents are separated; and
- (b) the appropriate proportion of the household income determined otherwise in respect of the remainder of the relevant tax year.

Calculation of the student's partner's residual income

5.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph and with the exception of sub-paragraphs (8), (9) and (10) of paragraph 4, a student's partner's income is determined in accordance with paragraph 4, reference to the parent being construed as references to the student's partner.

(2) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the student and the student's partner were separated for the duration of the relevant tax year, the partner's income is not taken into account in determining the household income.

(3) Where the Welsh Ministers determine that the student and the student's partner separated in the course of the relevant tax year, the partner's income is determined by reference to the partner's income under sub-paragraph (1) divided by fifty-two and multiplied by the number of complete weeks in the relevant tax year for which the Welsh Ministers determine that the student and the student's partner were not separated.

(4) Where a student has more than one partner in the relevant tax year, the provisions of this paragraph apply in relation to each.

Calculation of contribution

6.—(1) In relation to a student who is not an independent eligible student or who is an independent eligible student with a partner, the contribution is—

- (a) where the household income is £23,680 or more, £45 with the addition of £1 for every complete £8.78 by which the household income exceeds £23,680, subject to sub-paragraph (4); and
- (b) where the household income is less than £23,680, nil.

(2) In relation to an independent eligible student who does not have a partner, the contribution is—

- (a) where the household income is £11,025 or more, £45 with the addition of £1 for every complete £8.61 by which the household income exceeds £11,025, subject to sub-paragraph (4); and
- (b) where the household income is less than £11,025, nil.

(3) The amount of contribution calculated under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) must not exceed £7,992.

(4) Where the household income consists of the residual income of an independent eligible student and that student's partner and both hold a statutory award, the aggregate of the contributions calculated under sub-paragraph (1) or (2), must not exceed—

- (i) £7,992; or
- (ii) the contribution which would be payable if only one student held an award.

Split contributions

7.—(1) Where a contribution is payable under paragraph 6 and one or more of the conditions in sub-paragraph (2) is satisfied, the amount of contribution payable in respect of the student is the amount that the Welsh Ministers consider just taking into account the particular circumstances of the student.

(2) The conditions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) are—

- (a) more than one child of the student's parents holds a statutory award;
- (b) the student's parent holds a statutory award;
- (c) the student's parent's partner holds a statutory award;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for financial support for eligible students ordinarily resident in Wales undertaking postgraduate courses at the graduate school for international relations established by Johns Hopkins University at Bologna (known as the Bologna Center) and the College of Europe. The Regulations apply in respect of academic years beginning on or after 1 September 2013.

A grant for fees is available for one eligible student in any one academic year at the Bologna Center. A grant for fees, grants for living and other costs, a disabled students' allowance and a grant for dependants are available for one eligible student in any one academic year at the College of Europe. The period of each grant is one academic year, irrespective of the length of the course.

To qualify for financial support, an applicant must be an eligible student. An applicant is an eligible student if that person falls within one of the categories listed in Part 2 of Schedule 1 and satisfies the eligibility criteria.

These Regulations set out the eligibility criteria, the application procedure and (in the case of College of Europe students) the method of calculating the amounts payable and the arrangements for payment of the grants. The Regulations also provide for recovery of any overpayments.

The Regulations also make amendments to Schedule 5 to the Education (Student Support) (Wales) Regulations 2012.
