PART 5

QUALIFICATIONS AND TERM OF OFFICE

Resignation

37.—(1) A governor may at any time resign from office by giving written notice to the clerk to the governing body.

(2) The head teacher may withdraw their resignation at any time by giving written notice to the clerk to the governing body.

(3) An ex officio foundation governor may resign as governor either permanently or temporarily, but that person's resignation does not prejudice the ex officio governorship of that person's successor in the office from which the ex officio governorship derives.
