EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order applies in relation to Wales certain provisions which have been made amending the Plant Health (Forestry) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/2517) (“the 2005 Order”) in relation to England and Scotland. Those amendments were made by the Plant Health (Forestry) (England and Scotland) (Amendment) Order 2013 (S.I. 2013/2691) (“the 2013 Order”) and the Plant Health (Forestry) (England and Scotland) (Amendment) Order 2014 (S.I. 2014/2420) (“the 2014 Order”). Those Orders implemented in relation to England and Scotland certain provisions in Commission Implementing Directive 2014/78/EU of 17th June 2014 (OJ L 183, 24.6.2014, p. 23–48) and Commission Implementing Directive 2014/78/EU of 25th June 2014 (OJ L 186, 26.6.2014, p. 64–71). This Order implements those provisions in relation to Wales.

Article 2 of this Order provides that certain provisions of the 2005 Order which currently apply only in relation to England and Scotland, also apply in relation to Wales. As noted above, the provisions of the 2005 Order specified in article 2 are those which were inserted, substituted or amended by the 2013 Order or the 2014 Order (or in some cases both) in relation to England and Scotland.

Article 3 of this Order makes consequential amendments of the 2005 Order to revoke certain provisions which apply only in relation to Wales and which are now superseded by virtue of the provision made by article 2.

Article 4 of this Order (which comes into force immediately after the coming into force of articles 2 and 3) amends the 2005 Order to substitute references to England and Scotland with references to Great Britain.

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
