The Care and Support (Charging) (Wales) Regulations 2015

PART 2

CHARGING UNDER PART 5 OF THE ACT

Capital limit

11.—(1) Where A has capital above the capital limit a local authority must determine that it is reasonably practicable for A to pay the standard charge subject to the maximum weekly charge in relation to non-residential care and support.

(2) The capital limit is £24,000 and this is the financial limit for the purposes of section 66(5) of the Act.

(3) Where A has capital at or below the capital limit then a local authority must determine that it is not reasonably practicable for A to pay the standard charge or any lesser amount from capital.
