2016 No. 406

The Welsh Language Standards (No. 5) Regulations 2016

Title, commencement, application and interpretation

- 1.—(1) The title of these Regulations is the Welsh Language Standards (No. 5) Regulations 2016.
- (2) These Regulations come into force on 22 March 2016.
- (3) These Regulations apply in relation to Wales.
- (4) In these Regulations—
- a “body” (“corff”) means a person listed in Schedule 6;
 - an “individual” (“unigolyn”) means a member of the public;
 - a “member of staff” (“aelod o staff”) means an employee of a body, an individual working for a body but not a person appointed to a body by a county council or county borough council, the Welsh Ministers, a Minister of the Crown or Her Majesty (and “staff” (“staff”) must be construed accordingly).
- (5) For the purposes of these Regulations references to an employee of a body includes a constable, a special constable and a police cadet working for a body.
- (6) In these Regulations—
- (a) references to any activity being carried out by a body, or to any service being provided by a body, are to be read as including a reference to that activity being carried out on the body’s behalf or to that service being provided on the body’s behalf by a third party under arrangements made between the third party and the body;
 - (b) accordingly, unless a compliance notice provides to the contrary, a body will have failed to comply with a standard in respect of an activity or service it has arranged to be carried out or provided by a third party if that activity or service has not been carried out or provided in accordance with the standard.
- (7) Nothing in these Regulations requires a body to comply with a standard in respect of an activity carried out by it or a service provided by it where it is carrying out that activity or providing that service on behalf of a third party under arrangements made between it and the third party.
