2020 No. 353

The Health Protection (Coronavirus Restrictions)
(Wales) Regulations 2020 (revoked)

The emergency period and review of need for restrictions

- 3.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations the “emergency period”—
- (a) starts when these Regulations come into force, and
 - (b) ends in relation to a requirement or restriction imposed by these Regulations on the day and at the time specified in a direction published by the Welsh Ministers terminating the requirement or restriction (see paragraphs (3) and (4)).
- (2) The Welsh Ministers must review the need for restrictions and requirements imposed by these Regulations every 21 days, with the first review being carried out by 15 April 2020.
- (3) As soon as the Welsh Ministers consider that a requirement or restriction imposed by these Regulations is no longer necessary to prevent, protect against, control or provide a public health response to the incidence or spread of infection in Wales with the coronavirus, the Welsh Ministers must publish a direction terminating the requirement or restriction.
- (4) A direction published under this regulation may—
- (a) terminate any one or more requirement or restriction;
 - (b) terminate a requirement or restriction in relation to a specified business or service or a specified description of business or service.
- (5) In this regulation, “specified” means specified in a direction.
