(7) If permission is given under paragraph (5) the President may extend the case statement period under regulation 65 or, if it has expired, grant such further period as the President considers appropriate.

(8) If, at the time permission is given under paragraph (5), the appellant or the claimant has lost entitlement to attend or be represented at the hearing in accordance with regulation 33, the giving of permission restores such entitlement and, if necessary, the hearing may be postponed or adjourned, as appropriate, so that the appellant or the claimant can be represented.

Change of representative of respondent FEI governing body, local authority or responsible body

20.—(1) The respondent FEI governing body, local authority or the responsible body (“the respondent”) may at any time change its representative for the purposes of the appeal or the claim by notifying the Secretary of the Tribunal of the name and address of its new representative and, if available, the representative's telephone number and e-mail address.

(2) References in these Regulations (however expressed) to sending documents to, or giving notice to, the governing body of the FEI, the local authority or the responsible body are to be construed as references to sending documents to, or giving notice to, the representative named in accordance with paragraph (1) or regulation 19(3)(b).

Change of local authority in an appeal

21.—(1) This regulation applies for the purposes of an appeal if, after the date on which the local authority made the disputed decision, the local authority is no longer responsible for the child or young person within the meaning of sections 13 and 14, or 18 and 19, of the 2018 Act (“the old authority”).

(2) Where paragraph (1) applies, the President may order that, for all the purposes of the appeal and on receiving evidence that this regulation applies, the name of the authority responsible for the child within the meaning of section 13 of the 2018 Act (“the new authority”) is substituted for the old authority.

(3) Where the Secretary of the Tribunal sends any copies of documents referred to in paragraph (1) to a party who has already informed the Secretary of the Tribunal in response to the enquiries made under regulation 24(a)(i) and (ii) that the party does not wish to attend or be represented at the hearing, the Secretary of the Tribunal must ask whether the party wishes to amend that response on the basis of the copies received.

Failure to submit a case statement and absence of opposition

23.—(1) The tribunal panel may determine the appeal or the claim without a hearing or by holding a hearing if—

 - (i) the appeal, or
 - (ii) the claim.

(2) Where the tribunal panel determines the appeal or the claim without a hearing it must do so on the basis of the appeal application or claim application and any other documentation already received or amended in accordance with regulation 18(3).

(3) If the tribunal panel decides to hold a hearing in accordance with paragraph (1), it may issue a direction precluding the local authority, FEI governing body or the responsible body from attending the hearing or being represented at the hearing.

(4) If the appeal relates to—

- (a) the contents of a child's or young person's individual development plan, no statement that the local authority or FEI governing body does not resist the appeal or that it withdraws its opposition may take effect until the local authority or FEI governing body submits to the Secretary of the Tribunal written confirmation of the amendments (if any) it agrees to make to the child's or young person's individual development plan;
- (b) a decision to cease to maintain an individual development plan, no statement that the local authority or FEI governing body does not resist the appeal or that it withdraws its opposition may take effect until the local authority or FEI governing body submits to the Secretary of the Tribunal written confirmation of its decision not to resist the appeal or to withdraw its opposition.

(4) If an appeal application or a claim application is struck out under paragraph (1)(a), the proceedings to which the appeal or claim relates are considered to be concluded.

Power to strike out the appeal or claim

26.—(1) The Secretary of the Tribunal must, at any stage of the appeal or claim if the local authority, FEI governing body or the responsible body applies, or the President or the tribunal panel so directs, serve a notice on the appellant or the claimant stating that it has been proposed that the whole or part of the appeal or the claim should be struck out on one of the grounds specified in paragraph (2) or for want of prosecution.

(6) An order under paragraph (5) may be made without holding a hearing unless the appellant or the claimant requests the opportunity to make oral representations.

(7) If oral representations are made in accordance with paragraph (6), the President or the tribunal panel may consider the oral representations at the beginning of the hearing of the substantive appeal or claim.

(8) If the whole of an appeal application or a claim application is struck out under paragraph (5) the proceedings to which the appeal or claim relates are deemed to be concluded.

Order to amend case statement

27.—(1) The President or the tribunal panel may, if the President or the tribunal panel thinks fit at any stage of the appeal or the claim, order that a party’s case statement is amended on the grounds that it discloses no reasonable grounds for bringing the appeal or the claim or it is an abuse of the Tribunal’s process.

(2) Before making an order under paragraph (1), the President or the tribunal panel must give the party against whom the President or the tribunal panel proposes to make the order, a notice inviting representations and must consider any representations made.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation—

(3) The President or the tribunal panel may consider a failure by a person who is a party to the appeal to comply with a requirement made under paragraph (2), in the absence of any good reason for such failure, as a failure to co-operate with the Tribunal.

(4) The President or the tribunal panel may—

- (a) admit evidence whether or not the evidence would be admissible in a civil trial in England or Wales;
- (b) exclude evidence that would otherwise be admissible where—
 - (i) the evidence was not provided within the time allowed by a direction,

29.—(1) The President or the tribunal panel may, on the President's or the tribunal panel's initiative, or on the application of a party, give such directions to a party on any matter arising in connection with the appeal or claim as the President or the tribunal panel thinks fit, including staying proceedings, or such directions as are provided in regulations 31 and 32 to enable the parties to prepare for the hearing or to assist the President or the tribunal panel to determine the issues.

(2) An application by a party for directions must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Tribunal.

(3) A party who submits an application for directions to the Secretary of the Tribunal must unless the application is accompanied by the written consent of the other party serve a copy of the application on the other party.

(4) If the other party objects to the directions sought, the President or the tribunal panel must consider the objection and, if the President or the tribunal panel consider it necessary for the determination of the application, must give the parties an opportunity to make representations.

(5) If in the opinion of the President or the tribunal panel there would not be a reasonable time before a hearing of which notice has been given under regulation 37(1) to comply with a direction for which a party applies, the President or the tribunal panel may—

- (b) refuse the application.

(6) A direction must—

- (a) include a statement of the possible consequences for the appeal or claim, as provided by regulation 33, of a party's failure to comply with the direction within the time allowed by the President or the tribunal panel;

(7) Where, in accordance with regulation 35(1) the President or the tribunal panel orders—

- (b) that a claim is heard together with an appeal, the directions given under paragraph (1), may relate to the claim only.

(8) Where paragraph (7)(a) applies, the President or the tribunal panel may consider whether it is in the interests of the efficient disposal of the appeal and the claim, and in the interests of the parties, that the directions given with respect to the appeal are the same as, or similar to, those given in the claim.

(9) Where paragraph (7)(b) applies, the President or the tribunal panel may consider whether it is in the interests of the efficient disposal of the claim and the appeal, and in the interests of the parties, that the directions given with respect to the claim are the same as, or similar to, those given in the appeal.

(10) Where it appears to the President or the tribunal panel that there is an issue in an appeal or claim which must be determined prior to the substantive hearing of the appeal or the claim and which cannot properly be determined by the giving of directions, the President or the tribunal panel may summon the parties to appear before the President or the tribunal panel for this purpose and may give any necessary directions relating to their appearance.

Varying or setting aside directions

30.—(1) Where a party to whom a direction is addressed had no opportunity to object to the giving of the direction and did not give written consent to the application for it, that party may apply at any time to the President or the tribunal panel, by notice to the Secretary of the Tribunal, for the direction to be varied or set aside.

(2) The President or the tribunal panel must not vary the direction or set it aside without first notifying the parties and considering any representations made by them.

(3) The President or the tribunal panel may require a written undertaking to observe the condition referred to in paragraph (2) before supplying a copy.

(4) The President or the tribunal panel may grant to a party an order for such disclosure or inspection of documents (including the taking of copies) as might be granted under the Civil Procedure Rules 1998(10).

Consolidating claims together with appeals

35.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), where a claim relates to the same child or young person and either arises from the same circumstances or requires a decision on substantially the same issue as an appeal, the President may order that the claim is heard with the appeal.

(3) The President may only make an order under paragraph (1) if, in addition to complying with the requirements of paragraph (6), the making of an order would not cause undue delay to the determination of the appeal.

(4) The President may make an order varying or revoking an earlier order made under paragraph (1).

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), the President may issue an order under this regulation on the written request of either party or on the President's own initiative.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the procedure to be followed in proceedings before the Education Tribunal for Wales. These Regulations make provision relating to the exercise of that Tribunal's jurisdiction under Part 2 of the Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act 2018 which concerns additional learning needs appeals, and Chapter 1 of Part 6 of the Equality Act 2010 which concerns claims of disability discrimination in respect of school pupils.

The Welsh Ministers' Code of Practice on the carrying out of Regulatory Impact Assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, a regulatory impact assessment has been prepared as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with these Regulations. A copy can be obtained from the Welsh Government at Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ and on the Welsh Government website at www.gov.wales.
