2014 anaw 4

PART 8

SOCIAL SERVICES FUNCTIONS

[^{F1}Enforcement

[^{F1}161 Powers of entry and inspection

- (1) A person falling within subsection (2) may authorise an inspector to enter and inspect premises falling within subsection (3).
- (2) The following persons fall within this subsection—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers—
 - (i) where they consider it necessary or expedient for the purposes of a review conducted under section 149B(1), or
 - (ii) in pursuance of a direction under section 155;
 - (b) a person specified in a direction under section 153 or, where the direction specifies a class of persons, the person with whom the local authority enters into the contract or other arrangement required by the direction;
 - (c) a person specified in a direction under section 154;
 - (d) a person nominated in a direction under section 155.
- (3) The following premises fall within this subsection—
 - (a) premises owned or controlled by a local authority;
 - (b) premises—
 - (i) which are used, or proposed to be used, by any person in connection with the exercise of a local authority social services function, or
 - (ii) which the Welsh Ministers reasonably believe is being used, or may be used, for that purpose, but premises used wholly or mainly as a private dwelling do not fall within this subsection unless the occupier of the premises consents to the inspector entering and inspecting them.

- (4) “Premises” includes a vehicle.
- (5) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations make provision about the qualifications and other conditions to be met by an individual who may be an inspector.
- (6) When entering premises, an inspector must, if requested to do so by any person at the premises, produce a document showing the inspector's authorisation given under subsection (1).
- (7) The inspector may—
 - (a) examine the state and management of the premises and, if any persons are accommodated or receive care and support at the premises, examine the treatment of those persons;
 - (b) require the manager of the premises or any other person who appears to the inspector to hold or be accountable for documents or records kept at the premises to produce any documents or records (including medical and other personal records) that the inspector considers may be relevant to the exercise of functions under this Part by the person who authorised the inspector;
 - (c) inspect and take copies of any documents or records (including medical and other personal records) that the inspector considers may be relevant to the exercise of functions under this Part by the person who authorised the inspector;
 - (d) require any person to afford the inspector such facilities and assistance with respect to matters within the person's control as are necessary to enable the inspector to carry out the inspection;
 - (e) take such measurements and photographs and make such recordings as the inspector considers necessary for the purpose of carrying out the inspection;
 - (f) interview in private—
 - (i) the manager of the premises or any other person who appears to the inspector to be responsible for the premises;
 - (ii) any person working there;
 - (iii) any person accommodated or receiving care and support there who consents to be interviewed.
- (8) The powers in subsection (7)(b) to (d) include the power to—
 - (a) gain access to and check the operation of any computer and associated apparatus which the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe is (or has been) used in connection with the documents or records, and
 - (b) require documents or records to be produced in a form which is legible and portable.
- (9) Subsection (10) applies where—
 - (a) persons are accommodated or receiving care and support at the inspected premises,
 - (b) the inspector is a registered medical practitioner or registered nurse, and
 - (c) the inspector has reasonable grounds to believe that a person accommodated or receiving care and support at the premises is not receiving (or has not received) proper care and support.

- (10) Where this subsection applies, the inspector may examine the person in private but only if the person gives consent to the examination.
- (11) For the purposes of subsections (7)(f) and (10), an interview or examination is to be treated as conducted in private despite the presence of a third party if—
- (a) the person being interviewed or examined wants the third party to be present and the inspector does not object, or
 - (b) the inspector wants the third party to be present and the person being interviewed or examined consents.
- (12) Where an inspector conducts an interview or examination under this section, the inspector must, if requested to do so by—
- (a) the person being interviewed or examined, or
 - (b) an individual accompanying that person,
- produce a document showing the inspector's authorisation given under subsection (1) and, in the case of an examination, a document showing that the inspector is a registered medical practitioner or registered nurse.
- (13) As soon as is reasonably practicable after an inspector has concluded an inspection under this section, the inspector must send a report of the inspection to the person who gave the authorisation under subsection (1).
- (14) That person must send a copy of the inspector's report—
- (a) to the local authority being reviewed or subject to the direction, and
 - (b) if the person is not the Welsh Ministers, to the Welsh Ministers.
- (15) In this section and sections 161A, 161B and 161C, “inspector” means an individual authorised under subsection (1).]
