(6) 1990 c. 40.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

By sections 25 to 29 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1990, any professional or other body may, for the purpose of enabling any of their members who is a natural person to acquire rights to conduct litigation or rights of audience, make an application for that purpose to the Lord President of the Court of Session and the Scottish Ministers. Such an application must include a draft scheme, which the Lord President and the Scottish Ministers may approve. Section 27(1) of the 1990 Act provides that where such an application has been granted any member of the body concerned who is qualified under the scheme and who appears to the body to be a fit and proper person has the rights to conduct litigation or rights of audience to which that qualification entitles him or her. This Act of Sederunt amends the principal sets of sheriff court rules so as to ensure that they properly accommodate the possibility of such a person conducting litigation or exercising a right of audience in the sheriff court.

Sections 25 to 29 of the 1990 Act were brought into force in March 2007.
