CHAPTER 14.

An Act to confer powers, and impose duties and restrictions, in relation to gold, currency, payments, securities, debts, and the import, export, transfer and settlement of property, and for purposes connected with the matters aforesaid. [11th March 1947.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I.

GOLD AND FOREIGN CURRENCY.

1.—(1) Except with the permission of the Treasury, no person, other than an authorised dealer, shall, in the United Kingdom, and no person resident in the United Kingdom, other than an authorised dealer, shall, outside the United Kingdom, buy or borrow any gold or foreign currency from, or sell or lend any gold or foreign currency to, any person other than an authorised dealer.

Dealings in gold and
currency.

(2) Where a person buys or borrows any gold or foreign currency in the United Kingdom or, being a person resident in the United Kingdom, buys or borrows gold or foreign currency outside the United Kingdom, he shall comply with such conditions as to the use to which it may be put or the period for which it may be retained as may from time to time be notified to him by the Treasury.

(3) In this Act—

(a) the expression “foreign currency” does not include any currency or notes issued by the Government or under the law of any part of the scheduled territories but, save as aforesaid, includes any currency

other than sterling and any notes of a class which are or have at any time been legal tender in any territory outside the United Kingdom, and any reference to foreign currency, except so far as the context otherwise requires, includes a reference to any right to receive foreign currency in respect of any credit or balance at a bank; and

- (b) the expression “ the scheduled territories ” means the territories specified in the First Schedule to this Act, so, however, that the Treasury may at any time by order amend the said Schedule, either by the addition or exclusion of territories or otherwise, and the said expression shall be construed accordingly.

currency.

2.—(1) Every person in or resident in the United Kingdom who is entitled to sell, or to procure the sale of, any gold, or any foreign currency to which this section applies, and is not an authorised dealer, shall offer it, or cause it to be offered, for sale to an authorised dealer, unless the Treasury consent to his retention and use thereof or he disposes thereof to any other person with the permission of the Treasury.

The foreign currency to which this section applies is such foreign currency (hereafter in this Act referred to as “ specified currency ”) as may from time to time be specified by order of the Treasury.

(2) If a person who has obtained the consent of the Treasury to his retention and use of any gold or specified currency, and has stated in an application for the consent that he requires it for a particular purpose, no longer requires the gold or currency for that purpose, the preceding subsection shall thereupon apply to him in relation to that gold or currency as if the Treasury had revoked their consent to his retention and use thereof.

(3) A person who acquires any gold or specified currency from an authorised dealer shall be treated for the purposes of this section as if the Treasury had consented to the retention and use by him of that gold or currency (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (2) of the preceding section), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that gold or currency as to the purpose for which he requires it had been made by him in an application for the Treasury’s consent to his retention and use thereof.

(4) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorised dealer, he shall not be deemed to comply with that obligation by any offer made or caused to be made by him, if the offer is an offer to sell at a price exceeding that authorised by the Treasury, or without payment of any usual and proper charges of the authorised dealer, or otherwise on any unusual terms.

PART I.

(5) Where a person has become bound under this section to offer or cause to be offered any gold or specified currency for sale to an authorised dealer and has not complied with that obligation, the Treasury may direct that that gold or currency shall vest in the Treasury, and it shall vest in the Treasury accordingly free from any mortgage, pledge or charge, and the Treasury may deal with it as they think fit, but the Treasury shall pay to the person who would but for the direction be entitled to the gold or currency such sum as he would have received therefor if he had sold it to an authorised dealer in pursuance of an offer made under this section at the time when the vesting occurred.

(6) In any proceedings in respect of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, that the gold or currency in question has not been offered for sale to an authorised dealer.

3.—(1) Every person in the United Kingdom by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) any gold or any specified currency in the form of notes is held in the United Kingdom but who is not entitled to sell it or procure its sale shall notify the Bank of England in writing that he so holds that gold or currency. Bailees of gold and foreign currency.

(2) The Treasury may direct any person in the United Kingdom by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) any gold or any specified currency in the form of notes is held in the United Kingdom, whether or not he is entitled to sell it or procure its sale, to cause that gold or currency to be kept at all times in the custody of such banker as may be specified in the direction.

4.—(1) This section applies to any document of a kind intended to enable the person to whom the document is issued to obtain foreign currency from some other person on the credit of the person issuing it, and in particular to any traveller's cheque or other draft or letter of credit so intended. Travellers' cheques, etc.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the person issuing a document to which this section applies, and the person to whom it is issued, shall be deemed respectively to sell and buy foreign currency and where foreign currency is obtained by means of the document to sell and buy that foreign currency.

(3) Any such document not expressed in terms of sterling shall, if it is of a kind intended to enable the person to whom it is issued to obtain any specified currency, be treated also for the purposes of this Act as itself being specified currency.

(4) Every person in or resident in the United Kingdom who holds or to whose order there is held any document to which this section applies, being a document expressed in terms of sterling, shall encash it or cause it to be encashed in the scheduled territories with the person issuing it or with a banker, unless the Treasury consent to his retention and use thereof and, where in his application for that consent he has stated that he requires it for a particular purpose, unless also he still requires it for that purpose.

(5) A person who acquires any document to which the last preceding subsection applies from an authorised dealer shall be treated for the purposes of that subsection as if the Treasury had consented to the retention and use by him of that document (subject, however, to any conditions notified to him in accordance with subsection (2) of section one of this Act), and as if any statement made by him in an application for that document as to the purpose for which he requires it had been made by him in an application for the Treasury's consent to his retention and use thereof.

PART II.

Payments in the United

Transfer of 9.—(1) Except with the permission of the Treasury, a security registered in the United Kingdom shall not be transferred, and a security not so registered shall not be transferred in the United Kingdom, unless, in either case, the following requirements are fulfilled, that is to say—

- (a) neither the transferor nor the person, if any, for whom he is a nominee is resident outside the scheduled territories; and

Provided that—

- (i) neither the transferee nor his agent shall be deemed to have committed an offence by reason only that the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection were not fulfilled unless the transferee or, as the case may be, his agent, knew or had reason to believe that those requirements were not fulfilled; and
- (ii) neither the transferor nor his agent shall be deemed to have committed an offence by reason only that any of the requirements of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection have not been fulfilled unless, in the case of a non-fulfilment of the requirements of the said paragraph (c), the transferor or, as the case may be, his agent, knew or had reason to believe that those requirements were not fulfilled.

(2) Except with the permission of the Treasury, a security not registered in the United Kingdom shall not be transferred outside the United Kingdom if either the transferor or the transferee, or the person, if any, for whom the transferor or transferee is or is to be a nominee, is resident in the United Kingdom.

- (b) that a certificate of title to any other security, is issued outside the United Kingdom in substitution for or in addition to a certificate of title thereto which is in, or is or has been lost or destroyed in, the United Kingdom.

12. Except with the permission of the Treasury, no person resident in the United Kingdom shall do any act with intent to secure that capital moneys payable on a security registered in the United Kingdom are paid outside the United Kingdom, or that, where the certificate of title to a security is in the United Kingdom, capital moneys payable on the security are paid outside the United Kingdom without production of the certificate to the person making the payment.

Payment of

- (c) do any act in relation to the register which recognises or gives effect to any act appearing to him to have been done with such intent as is mentioned in the two last preceding sections, whether done by a person in or resident in the United Kingdom or not.

Additional
to nominee
holdings.

14.—(1) Where—

- (a) the holder of a security is a nominee and the person for whom he is a nominee is resident outside the scheduled territories; or
- (b) the holder of a security is not a nominee and is resident outside the scheduled territories, then, except with the permission of the Treasury, no person resident in the United Kingdom shall do any act whereby the holder becomes his nominee in respect of the security.

(2) Except with the permission of the Treasury, a person resident in the United Kingdom for whom the holder of a security is a nominee shall not do any act whereby—

- (a) the holder, being a person resident outside the scheduled territories, holds the security otherwise than as his nominee; or
- (b) the holder, not being a person resident outside the scheduled territories, holds the security as nominee for a person resident outside the scheduled territories.

(3) Where the holder of a security is a nominee, then, except with the permission of the Treasury, neither he, if he is resident in the United Kingdom, nor any person resident in the United Kingdom through whose agency the exercise of all or any of the holder's rights in respect of the security are controlled, shall—

- (a) do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of another person as the person from whom he directly receives his instructions unless both the person previously instructing him and the person substituted for that person were, immediately before the substitution, resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere; or

- (b) do any act whereby he ceases to be a person bound to give effect to the instructions of another person in relation to the security, unless the person who therefore instructed him is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

(4) Where the holder of a security is not a nominee and is resident in the United Kingdom, then, except with the permission of the Treasury, he shall not do any act whereby he becomes the nominee of another person in respect of the security, unless that other person is resident in the scheduled territories and not elsewhere.

15.—(1) This and the next following section apply to any security except—

of title.

- (a) a security which is registered in the United Kingdom otherwise than in a subsidiary register, and on which none of the dividends or interest is payable on presentment of a coupon; and
- (b) any such other securities as may be prescribed, and in the following provisions of this section and in the next following section the expressions “security”, “certificate of title” and “coupon” mean respectively a security to which the said sections apply, a certificate of title to such a security, and a coupon representing dividends or interest on such a security.

(2) It shall be the duty of every person by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certificate of title is held in the United Kingdom, and of every person resident in the United Kingdom by whom or to whose order (whether directly or indirectly) a certificate of title is held outside the United Kingdom, to cause the certificate of title to be kept at all times, except with the permission of the Treasury, in the custody of an authorised depository, and nothing in this Part of this Act shall prohibit the doing of anything for the purpose of complying with the requirements of this subsection.

(3) Except with the permission of the Treasury, an authorised depository shall not part with any certificate of title or coupon required under this section to be in the custody of an authorised depository:

PART III.

Provided that this subsection shall not prohibit an authorised depositary—

- (a) from parting with a certificate of title or coupon to or to the order of another authorised depositary, where the person from whom the other authorised depositary is to receive instructions in relation thereto is to be the same as the person from whom he receives instructions;
- (b) from parting with a certificate of title, for the purpose of obtaining payment of capital moneys payable on the security, to the person entrusted with payment thereof;
- (c) from parting with a coupon in the ordinary course for collection.

(4) Except with the permission of the Treasury, no capital moneys, interest or dividends shall be paid in the United Kingdom on any security except to or to the order of an authorised depositary having the custody of the certificate of title to that security, so, however, that this subsection shall not be taken as restricting the manner in which any sums lawfully paid on account of the capital moneys, interest or dividends may be dealt with by the person receiving them.

(5) Except with the permission of the Treasury, an authorised depositary shall not do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation to a certificate of title or coupon, unless there is produced to him the prescribed evidence that he is not by so doing giving effect to any transaction which is prohibited by this Act.

(6) Where a certificate of title which under this section should for the time being be in the custody of an authorised depositary is not in the custody of an authorised depositary, then, except with the permission of the Treasury, no person shall in the United Kingdom, and no person resident in the United Kingdom shall outside the United Kingdom, buy, sell, transfer, or do anything which affects his rights or powers in relation to, the security.

(7) Except with the permission of the Treasury, no person in or resident in the United Kingdom shall, in the case of a certificate of title with coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets), detach any of the coupons otherwise than in the ordinary course for collection.

Additional provisions as to deposited certificates.

16.—(1) Where a certificate of title to a security is by the last preceding section required to be and is in the custody of an authorised depositary, the provisions of this section shall, except so far as the Treasury otherwise direct, have effect in relation thereto until—

PART III.

- (a) there are delivered to him the prescribed declarations as to the ownership of the security and the residence of the owners thereof; and
- (b) in the case of a certificate of title which—
  - (i) would ordinarily be accompanied by coupons (whether attached or on separate coupon sheets); but
  - (ii) when it comes into the custody of the authorised depositary wants, in order to render it complete, any coupons which would not in the ordinary course have been detached for collection, there have also been deposited with him the coupons so wanting at the time when the certificate of title comes into his custody:

Provided that where the said declarations have been delivered to an authorised depositary and he has parted with the certificate of title, paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not again apply on the certificate coming into the custody of another authorised depositary or again coming into his own custody.

(2) Except with the permission of the Treasury, the authorised depositary shall not part with or destroy the certificate of title or any coupons belonging thereto, otherwise than as mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of the proviso to subsection (3) of the last preceding section, or do any act whereby he recognises or gives effect to the substitution of one person for another as the person from whom he receives instructions in relation thereto:

Provided that, where the person from whom an authorised depositary receives instructions in relation to any certificate of title becomes bankrupt in the United Kingdom or dies, this subsection shall not prohibit the authorised depositary from recognising the trustee in bankruptcy or personal representative as the person entitled to give instructions in relation to the certificate of title.

(3) The authorised depositary shall place any capital moneys, dividends or interest on the security received by him to the credit of the person by virtue of whose authority he received them, but shall not permit any part of the sums received to be dealt with except with the permission of the Treasury.

17.—(1) The Treasury may, if in their opinion there are Special provisions as to dealings in certain securities. circumstances rendering it necessary or expedient so to do, by order direct that this section shall apply to such securities as may be prescribed, being securities on which capital moneys, dividends or interest are payable in a specified currency or as respects which the holder has an option to require payment of any capital moneys, dividends or interest thereon in a specified currency.

(2) Except with the permission of the Treasury, no person shall, in the United Kingdom, and no person resident in the United Kingdom shall, outside the United Kingdom, transfer, or do anything which affects his rights or powers in relation to, any security to which this section applies.

Validation
transfers.

18.—(1) The title of any person to a security for which he has given value on a transfer thereof, and the title of all persons claiming through or under him, shall, notwithstanding that the transfer, or any previous transfer, or the issue of the security, was by reason of the residence of any person concerned other than the first-mentioned person prohibited by the provisions of this Act relating to the transfer or issue of securities, be valid unless the first-mentioned person had notice of the facts by reason of which it was prohibited.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Treasury may issue a certificate declaring, in relation to a security, that any acts done before the issue of the certificate purporting to effect the issue or transfer of the security, being acts which were prohibited by this Act, are to be, and are always to have been, as valid as if they had been done with the permission of the Treasury, and the said acts shall have effect accordingly.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person to prosecution for any offence against this Act.

Application of Part III to secondary securities.

19.—(1) This Part of this Act shall apply, with such modifications (if any) as may be prescribed, in relation to any such document as is mentioned in the following subsection, as if the document created, and were the certificate of title to, a security (hereafter in this Act referred to as a "secondary security").
