18 Transfer of staff to Authority.

- (1) This section applies to—
 - (a) any person who, immediately before the operative date, is employed under a contract of employment by one of the participating authorities wholly for purposes of the joint committee of the participating authorities generally known (but not otherwise referred to in this Act) as the Broads Authority; and
 - (b) any person who—
 - (i) immediately before the operative date is employed by the Commissioners under a contract of employment; and
 - (ii) is designated for the purposes of this section by an order made by the Secretary of State.

Changes to legislation: *Norfolk and Suffolk Broads Act 1988, Part IV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 20 April 2024. - (2) The contract of employment between a person to whom this section applies and his employer shall have effect from the operative date as if originally made between him and the Authority established by this Act.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2) above—
 - (a) all the employer's rights, powers, duties and liabilities under or in connection with a contract to which that subsection applies shall by virtue of this section be transferred on the operative date to the Authority; and
 - (b) anything done before the operative date by or in relation to the employer in respect of that contract, or of the employee, shall be deemed from that date to have been done by or in relation to the Authority.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) above are without prejudice to any right of any employee to terminate his contract of employment if a substantial change is made to his detriment in his working conditions; but no such right shall arise by reason only of the change of employer effected by this section.
- (5) An order under this section may designate a person either individually or as a member of a class or description of employment.

19 Transfer of property, rights and liabilities.

- (1) On the operative date there shall vest in the Authority all property, rights and liabilities of any participating authority held or incurred wholly for purposes of the joint committee mentioned in section 18(1) of this Act.
- (2) Any dispute between the Authority and a participating authority as to the effect of subsection (1) above in relation to any particular property, right or liability shall be determined by a person appointed for the purpose—
 - (a) by agreement between the Authority and the authority; or
 - (b) failing such agreement, by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order provide for the transfer to the Authority of any property, rights or liabilities of the Commissioners the transfer of which appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in consequence of any of the provisions of this Act.
- (4) Any transfer effected by order under subsection (3) above may be on such terms, including financial terms, as the Secretary of State thinks fit.
- (5) Any order under subsection (3) above may create or impose such new rights or liabilities in respect of what is transferred as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient.

20 Annual report.

- (1) The Authority shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the end of each financial year—
 - (a) prepare and publish a report on the discharge of its functions during that financial year; and
 - (b) send a copy of the report to each of the appointing authorities.

- (2) The Secretary of State shall lay a copy of every report under this section, together with a copy of the Authority’s statement of accounts for the financial year in question, before each House of Parliament.

21 Application to Authority of certain enactments applying to local authorities etc.

Schedule 6 to this Act shall have effect to amend certain enactments which apply in relation to the powers and duties of local authorities and other bodies, the main purpose of the amendments being to provide for the Authority to be treated as a local authority for the purposes of those enactments.

22 Protection of Crown interests.

- (1) No power conferred on the Authority by this Act may be exercised in any way likely to affect prejudicially any interest which—

- (a) belongs to Her Majesty in right of the Crown; or
- (b) belongs to any government department or is held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department;

unless the appropriate authority’s consent to the proposed exercise of the power has been obtained by the Authority in writing.

- (2) In giving any such consent the authority concerned may impose such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate.

- (3) In subsection (1) above—

“the appropriate authority” means—

- (a) in relation to an interest belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown and forming part of the Crown Estate, the Crown Estate Commissioners;
- (b) in relation to any interest belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown but not forming part of the Crown Estate, the government department having the management of that interest; and
- (c) in relation to an interest belonging to a government department, or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department, that department; and “interest” means any estate, interest or right in or over land.

23 Power to make incidental, consequential and transitional provision.

- (1) The Secretary of State may at any time by order make such incidental, consequential, transitional or supplemental provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient—

- (a) for the general purposes, or any particular purposes, of this Act or in consequence of any of its provisions or for giving full effect to it; or
- (b) in consequence of such of the provisions of any other Act passed in the same Session as this Act as affects any part of the Broads.

- (2) No other provision of this Act shall be construed as prejudicing the generality of subsection (1) above.

- (3) An order under this section may, in particular, amend or repeal any provision contained in, or made under, any enactment.

24 Orders [^{F6}, regulations] and byelaws.

- (1) Any power to make orders [^{F7}or regulations] under this Act shall be exercised by statutory instrument.
- (2) Any such statutory instrument (other than one made under section 26 of, or paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 7 to, this Act) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (3) Orders [^{F8}, regulations] and byelaws under this Act may make different provisions for different cases or different circumstances and may contain such incidental, consequential, supplemental or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State or (as the case may be) the Authority thinks fit.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State holds a local inquiry before deciding whether or not to—
 - (a) confirm byelaws made under section 6(1) or 10(3) of this Act; or
 - (b) make an order under paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 to this Act;the provisions of subsections (2) to (5) of section 250 of the ^{M3}Local Government Act 1972 (evidence at, and cost of, local inquiries) shall apply in relation to that inquiry as they apply in relation to a local inquiry held under section 250(1).
