

Investigatory Powers Act 2016

2016 CHAPTER 25

PART 2

LAWFUL INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

CHAPTER 2

OTHER FORMS OF LAWFUL INTERCEPTION

Interception in accordance with overseas requests

52 Interception in accordance with overseas requests

- (1) The interception of a communication in the course of its transmission by means of a telecommunication system is authorised by this section if conditions A to D are met.
- (2) Condition A is that the interception—
 - (a) is carried out by or on behalf of a telecommunications operator, and
 - (b) relates to the use of a telecommunications service provided by the telecommunications operator.
- (3) Condition B is that the interception is carried out in response to a request made in accordance with a relevant international agreement by the competent authorities of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

In this subsection “relevant international agreement” means an international agreement to which the United Kingdom is a party and which is designated as a relevant international agreement by regulations made by the Secretary of State [^{F1}(see further subsections (6) and (7))].

- (4) Condition C is that the interception is carried out for the purpose of obtaining information about the communications of an individual—
 - (a) who is outside the United Kingdom, or

- (b) who each of the following persons believes is outside the United Kingdom—
- (i) the person making the request;
 - (ii) the person carrying out the interception.
- (5) Condition D is that any further conditions specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section are met.
- [^{F2}(6) Subsection (7) applies where an international agreement provides for requests for the interception of a communication to be made by the competent authorities of a country or territory, or of more than one country or territory, in which a person found guilty of a criminal offence may be sentenced to death for the offence under the general criminal law of the country or territory concerned.
- Such an offence is referred to in subsection (7) as a “death penalty offence”.
- (7) Where this subsection applies, the Secretary of State may not designate the agreement as a relevant international agreement unless the Secretary of State has sought, in respect of each country or territory referred to in subsection (6), a written assurance, or written assurances, relating to the non-use of information obtained by virtue of the agreement in connection with proceedings for a death penalty offence in the country or territory.]
