Searches of indexes of civil partnership records kept by registration authorities and issue of copies

- 14.—(1) Every registration authority shall cause indexes of entries in the civil partnership register relating to all civil partnerships formed in its area to be made and to be kept with other records in its register office.(6)
- (2) Subject to regulations 15 and 16, any person shall be entitled at any time when the register office is required to be open for the transaction of public business to search the indexes, and to have a certified copy or a certified extract of any entry in the civil partnership register on payment to the registration authority of a fee prescribed under section 34(1) of the 2004 Act.
- (3) The registration authority shall cause all certified copies or certified extracts given by the registration authority to be signed by a person authorised by that registration authority to issue the certified copy or certified extract.

<sup>(5)</sup> For the meaning of "the register" see section 30(4) of the 2004 Act, section 30(4).

<sup>(6)</sup> For the meaning of "register office" see the 2004 Act 2004, section 6(3C). This section was inserted in the 2004 Act by paragraph 2 of the Schedule to the Civil Partnership (Amendments to Registration Provisions) Order (S.I.2005/2000).

- (4) Any certified copy or certified extract signed by a person authorised by the registration authority shall be received in evidence of the civil partnership to which it relates without any further proof of the entry.
- (5) No certified copy or certified extract purporting to have been given by the registration authority shall be of any force or effect unless it is issued on a form supplied by the Registrar General and signed by a person authorised by the registration authority.
- (6) The registration authority shall account to the Registrar General for all forms for certified copies and certified extracts supplied by her in such manner and at such times as she may require.

Commencement Information

I14 Reg. 14 in force at 5.12.2005, see reg. 1

Access to civil partnership records

- 15.—(1) The civil partners, at the time of the formation of the civil partnership, shall be entitled to apply for a certified copy and a certified extract of the entry relating to it in the civil partnership register on payment of the fee prescribed under section 34(1) of the 2004 Act.
- (2) Subject to paragraphs (1) (3), (4) and regulation 16, any person shall be entitled to a certified copy if, and only if, in addition to the information obtained from the indexes of entries in the civil partnership register, he is able to provide the Registrar General, or the registration authority with the full addresses of both civil partners as recorded in the entry concerned.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4) the Registrar General may, if she considers it appropriate to do so, authorise the issue, either by herself or by a registration authority, of a certified copy where an applicant for such a certificate is unable to provide the full addresses of both civil partners as recorded in the entry.
- (4) The Registrar General may authorise the issue of a certified copy in accordance with paragraph (3) if the applicant applies to her for that purpose and supplies such information as she may require to satisfy herself that it would be reasonable to issue the certificate.
- (5) A certified extract to be given by the Registrar General or a registration authority shall be on form 13 if the civil partnership was formed in England or form 13(w) if the civil partnership was formed in Wales.
- (6) A registration authority shall not disclose any records relating to civil partnerships held by it except in accordance with this regulation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide English and Welsh forms for the registration of civil partnerships in England and Wales.

The Regulations also relate to—

- (d) the making and granting of applications to the Registrar General to shorten the waiting period;
- (e) the shortening of the waiting period by the registration authority;
- (f) the contents of the civil partnership document;
- (g) completion of bilingual forms;
- (h) the manner of completion of the civil partnership document;
- (i) the information to be recorded in the civil partnership register;
- (j) the creation of indexes of entries in the civil partnership register by the Registrar General and by registration authorities;
- (k) access to civil partnership records;
- (l) the time limit for the access regime to civil partnership records;
- (m) the retention of documents relating to civil partnerships;
- (n) duties of the civil partnership registrar and the authorised person; and
- (o) corrections of errors in the civil partnership register by the Registrar General.

These Regulations have no impact on the costs of business, charities or voluntary bodies; neither does it have any significant financial impact on public bodies though there are set-up costs for the Registration Service in the region of £500,000. These costs were outlined in the full Regulatory Impact Assessment for the Civil Partnership Act 2004 which can be viewed at http://www.dti.gov.uk/access/ria/index.htm£equality.
